SANSOM ANNOUNCES HOUSE COUNCIL AND COMMITTEE LEADERS

TALLAHASSEE—Speaker of the Florida House of Representatives Ray Sansom, R-Destin, today announced the representatives who will chair councils and committees during the 2009 legislative session.

In addition, Sansom announced the representatives who will serve as vice-chairs and ranking members on the councils and committees. Earlier, Sansom named Rep. Bill Galvano, R-Bradenton, to chair the Rules and Calendar Council.

Sansom also announced today the creation of the Select Committee on Seminole Indian Compact Review, to be chaired by Speaker pro tempore Larry Cretul, R-Ocala.

Sansom said, "The purpose of the select committee is to thoroughly review and provide an opportunity for public comment on the proposed gambling compact between the State of Florida and the Seminole Tribe of Florida." He said the select committee shall produce a written report no later than the opening day of regular session, that includes both recommendations for proposed action and discussion and analysis of the issues related to the compact.

"These individuals named today have demonstrated leadership, public service, and a commitment to make Florida an even better place to live," said Speaker Sansom. "During these very difficult economic times, it is especially important that our members have a thorough knowledge of the issues—especially in regard to the state budget. I have great confidence that these leaders will help steer Florida on the best possible course."

(A complete list of council and committee appointments will be posted on the House website later today at www.myfloridahouse.gov.)
